The European War.

To the general reader, all questions seem to be secondary to the European War.—

Every one desires to know what the belligerente are about; if they have had an engagement are about; if they have had an engagement are about; if they will really fight; gagement; whether they will really fight; ed at Vienns, or whether there was no resist-whether, indeed, they will fight at all. The news by the Weser, published yesterday, did from the silence of the telegram from Turin not lines the tendency to meterially increase the war excitement, although it certainly informed us preparations for war were sition, and Vercelli was reached without a being made with great rapidity, and that contest, are matters of detail that have no hostile parties had had a "brush" for the important hearing upon the main purpore of to-day's news. The invading army of Austria is in full march upon Sardinian soil. On the other hand the King of Sardinia has one day later than the Weser. The war put himself at the head of his army and clouds are gathering, and the probability—gone to meet his invaders.

He has surveyed the line of the Doro. we may say certainly—is that if matters are not compromised at once, all Europe will be involved in the fray! The best incomed on European politics affirm that a days in the same of the Doro, where it is supposed the Sardinians may perhaps make a stand in delense of their capital, and he has gone thence to Allessan dria, which must some be attacked, if the Austrians have a real intention of contacts. general war is inevitable. The War Leader of the London Times of May 2d.

[The following highly important article, REAL ESTATE] from the London Times of May 2d, was tel: egraphed to the Commercial on Sunday night, entire, from New York, where it was received by the steamship Weser. It is intensely interesting, being the commontary of the leading and most influential journal in thate los Europe, on the momentous news by the steamers arrived Saturday.]

[From the London Times, May 2d.] Europe has entered into a state of war. Whotever may have been the reluctance in some quarters to believe that this could hap-en, whatever the inclination to deny or discredit, the full grown truth marches on-The Democrate of Montgomery county are harrby notified, to meet in Mass Convention, at Bookel Hall, in Dayton, on Saturday May and is making himself known by his ordinary deeds. In three columns the Austripointing nine delegates and alternates to the Democratic State Convention, to be held at Democratic State Convention, to be held at Columbus on Thursday, May 26th. A full at log on the Sarzinian shores of the Largo tendance is requested from every Ward and Maggiore, occupying the towns of Intra, Township. By order of the Democratic Cen. Pallansa and Arona, and driving back the Sardinians by the superiority of their numbers. A second, consisting of 20 battals lions and S batteries, has taken the road by Gravellana, and the third has found its way by Abbiatta Grasso. How far the invaders have advanced, or what may be their point of concentrating, cannot be clearly about 18 property.

The Imperial Guard, numbering 15,000, have arrived at Genou, and 40,000 French troops have now gathered in that place of strength. Against "Ye Ancient" DAYTON ! "A Stitch in Time Saves Nine."

PHILOSOPHERS pronounce the proposition irrational that, an "irresistable body can ever come in contact with an immovable one." Be that as it may, one thing is certain, and beyond successful contradiction, that the BEST and OHEAP-WEST GOODS ever offered to the people of Dayton, are to be found at No. 214, COR. FIFTH ANDCLAY ATREETS, where
